

When will I know if my application will be issued via FastTrack?

Last Modified on 26/04/2023 1:15 pm CAT

If all validations were successful, the adviser will be notified directly after the application submission stage that the policy has been accepted at standard rates via the FastTrack process. If any of the validations fail, standard underwriting processes and requirements will apply.

The validations include FICA, banking and the LOA register.